

Entertainers and family activities have been confirmed for 1st Annual Genoa Cowboy Poetry & Music Festival

First Annual Genoa Cowboy Poetry & Music Festival scheduled to be held Thursday through Sunday, April 29–May 2, 2010. The event promises to be one of the most exciting events held in the Carson Valley with cowboy poets and artists that will attract visitors locally as well as from around the western region.

The Genoa Cowboy Poetry & Music Festival is designed to promote and preserve the unique ranching heritage of the Carson Valley as well as the Cowboy “Way” through concerts, poets, visual arts, educational workshops, food, and exhibits. Confirmed artists at this time include; Richard Elloyan, Dave Stamey, Larry Maurice, Paul Zarsyski, Ken Gardner, Tony Argenta, Richard Elloyan and the Bridgeport Poets, Waddie Mitchell, Don Edwards, David John and the Comstock Cowboys, Lacy J Dalton, and John Tyson.

A variety of activities are planned that include Snowshoe Thompson presented by Don Thompson, McAvoy Laine as Mark Twain, and Mike Curcio as Wyatt Earp. Storytelling will include presentations by Bob Ellison, Laura Hickey, and Billie Rightmire. Other activities planned are Basque culture demonstrations, Dutch oven cooking, blacksmithing, basket weaving, Texas Two Step dance lessons, square dancing, leather tooling, silver smithing, and tours. Western gear shops as well as western art will be on sale during the festival.

This particular weekend will be a
