

GENOA 'CONCERT IN THE PARK' SERIES

TOWN OF GENOA RECREATION AND EVENTS COMMITTEE
PRESENTS

The Old West Trio

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12 • 4-6 PM • GENOA PARK

From the first yodeling toe-tapper until the last lilting coyote chorus, the Old West Trio delivers uplifting cowboy and folk music to listeners of all ages. The trio, composed of Steve Ide, Leslie Ide, and Steve Johnson, is based in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

As lead guitarist Steve Johnson puts it, "Cowboy music is a history lesson with a melody."

To honor their Western heritage, the Old West Trio performs both traditional and contemporary songs that explore a variety of styles, including gunfighter ballads, western swing, classic Sons of the Pioneers, and lively yodeling tunes.

This popular group played last year in Genoa and more recently at the Genoa Cowboy Poetry & Music Festival. Bring friends, family and picnics, and enjoy music in the beautiful Genoa Town Park located at the top of Nixon Street.

2ND ANNUAL Cowboy Poetry & Music Festival

1ST WEEKEND IN MAY, 2011

The festival will feature a variety of events, and will include more than 80 workshops ranging from blacksmithing and leather tooling to basket weaving and Dutch-oven cooking.

Additionally, the festival will feature genuine cowboy food and Western artists, Chautauquas, and of course, a long list of cowboy poets and entertainers!
