

Hot Club of Cowtown concert May 13 in Genoa

Carson Valley Arts Council sponsors 'Hot' Western Swing group

The Hot Club of Cowtown will be performing at the Genoa Town Hall on Friday, May 13. This sizzling trio has traveled the world. Astounding slap bass, amazing jazz guitar and virtuoso fiddling give the group a show much bigger than the sum of its parts. Austin-based, Hot Club of Cowtown have become one of the hardest-swinging Western swing trio on the planet. They have opened stadiums for artists such as Bob Dylan and Willie Nelson and continue to bring their brand of Western swing to a wide range of audiences all over the world.

Elana James mixes hot licks on her fiddle with cool vocals, all while wearing 4-inch heels. On guitar, Witt Smith goes from Django Reinhardt through Bob Wills with style and complete abandon. Jake Irwin drives the band with his dynamic style on the bass. The show is at 7 p.m., with doors opening at 6:30 pm.

Tickets are $17 for Carson Valley Arts Council members and $20 for non-members. For tickets or more information, contact the Carson Valley Arts Council at 775-782-8207
