

MATIGAN KING'S ESSAY AWARD

five semi-finalists who won 3rd place for all middle schoolers in the State of Nevada participating in an American History Essay Contest. Matigan is in 7th grade at St. Teresa of Avila School.

Nevada State students in grades 6th-8th were required to write a 500-750 word essay on, "an important event in American history which still impacts us today."

The award was presented at the Governor's Mansion right before the Nevada Day, October 27, 2012.

Matigan's award winning essay was about the bombing of Pearl Harbor. She was intrigued by the Pearl Harbor bombing on December 7, 1941, which resulted in the United State's involvement with World War II and the beginning of the nuclear era.
